

FIRM OVERVIEW

SWK Holdings Corporation is a NASDAQ listed life science finance company that provides custom financing solutions to life science companies and royalty owners. SWK is a market leader in the $5mm to $20mm funding space and is considered a partner of choice for emerging life science companies. Since inception SWK has completed over $500mm of transactions. SWK is a C-Corp/permanent capital vehicle and provides financings through its own balance sheet as well as through its investment advisory clients. SWK also owns Enteris Biopharma, a contract development and manufacturing platform.

ANALYST JOB DESCRIPTION

The Analyst will have general a wide array of support responsibilities including new transaction evaluation, portfolio monitoring, and back office assistance. SWK is a flat organization and the Analyst will report directly to senior management. The Analyst will take an active role in the evaluation and structuring of transactions which will enable him or her to experience all aspects of the private credit underwriting process. Regarding back office duties, the Analyst will assist on regular portfolio monitoring, quarterly reporting, and ad hoc projects to support SWK's accounting and finance function. The Analyst will be working on a small deal team in a fast-paced, entrepreneurial environment and the position requires a highly motivated, self-starter.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Perform deep dive product analysis and market research
- Prepare financial models with various case scenarios
- Underwrite and support loan-to-value analysis
- Assist with investment committee presentations and memos
- Liaise with internal staff and external consultants including accounting, legal, consultants, and investment bankers

QUALIFICATIONS:

Successful candidate must possess a strong entrepreneurial streak, as they will be part of a growing team with varied responsibilities throughout the Firm. Additional requirements include:

- 1-5 years of experience in private credit or a similar investment environment that demonstrates knowledge of complex capital structures.
- While we will prefer candidates with life science investment or consulting experience, SWK is willing to teach the a highly motivated and intellectual curios individual about the industry
- Bachelor's degree with demonstrated strong analytical skills
- Robust excel skills particularly in financial modeling
- Effective written and oral communication skills with a direct and open communication style
- Self-motivated and highly productive in independent work;
- Able to envision, prioritize and thoroughly complete projects autonomously
- Team fit
- Strong links to Texas preferred

TIMING: April start

If you are interested, please send an email to recruiting@swkhold.com with a copy of your current resume.